Seventeen year old Mia is a talented cellist, she has two choices but it is still so difficult to choose. Then one wintery day when Mia and her family go for a drive to somebody's house the result is calamitous. Mia sees her life flash before her eyes as she recalls to many memories and watches in the present as she struggles for her life and has only one choice left, one that really matters. That choice is if she will fight to stay alive. IF I Stay is a page turner and when you reach the end of the book it will leave you thinking.
