Copy of 1st page A Birthday Wish
"I pray that some heaven-sent power
May bless you with patience wherever you go.
Victorious living is better and truer,
Than happiness. May you the battle endure,
Like a victor, and win, if not happiness, peace
and remember beloved. - I never shall cease
To aspire for you, hope for you, love you,
And be proud of your many successes

Sisters and brothers, little maid,
How many may you be?
How many? Seven in all, she said,
And wondering looked at me.

Fishing, fishing, is one of the gentlest arts,
Whether you fish for fishes,
Or whether you fish for hearts.
Fishing, fishing is all in the hands of fido,
And all your success you will find more or less
Depends on your kind of bait."

There is no chance, no destiny, no fate,
 Can overcome, or hinder, or control.
 The firm resolve, of a determined soul,
 Gifts count as nothing, will alone is great.
 All things give way before it, soon or late.

CANADIAN ARTISTS AID SPANISH REFUGEE CHILDREN

The work of Sir Frederick Banting, discoverer of insulin, this Canadian winter scene is one at the Prince Arthur Ave. exhibition of Canadian artists. Sir Frederick has donated the canvas which will be auctioned off in aid of refugee children of loyalist Spain. The exhibition is open this week.
